

Mayor's Notes Ridgeway, South Carolina

October 2018

Ridgeway SC Volunteer Fire Department

A big shout out to Ridgeway's own Fire Chief Jamie Webb, for passing his Fire Instructor 1 certification. Please join me and let Chief Webb know just how proud of him we are for this great accomplishment. Knowing that we have Chief Webb protecting the citizens of Ridgeway, gives piece of mind. Great job Jamie, I'm proud of you and the entire crew of Fireman.

Olde Town Hall Restaurant

It's that time of year, the air is a little crisper, the smell of roasted oysters fill the air – and Olde Town Hall Restaurant and Pub is having it's 3rd Annual Oyster Roast on Saturday, October 20th. The festivities begin at 6:30 PM. If you are interested in attending, contact owner Angelina Surina for all the details.

Family Night on the Ridge

I'm sure everyone is aware that we were unable to celebrate "Family Night on the Ridge" due to hurricane Florence. Have no fear, it has been rescheduled for Spring of 2019.

Fairfield County Police and Ridgeway

Many of you may know, we have entered into an agreement with the Fairfield County Sheriff Department to provide police protection for Ridgeway. Sheriff Deputies protect our town in their off duty hours. If you need emergency assistance, please call 911. If you need non-emergency assistance please call the dispatch and The Fairfield County Sheriff Department will be happy to assist, they are on –call 24 hours. 803-635-5511

Spooky Night

Wednesday, October 31st is Halloween. Ghosts and goblins will be running the streets of Ridgeway. This event is a time for kids of all ages to walk the streets and trick or treat for candy. Please remember to turn on your front porch light to welcome the children. If you are out driving, please be extra mindful of the spooks running around. It's candy time.

Pig on the Ridge

It's that time of year, the air is getting cooler, the leaves will soon burst with color and Ridgeway will explode with people. The sweet smell of BBQ will fill the air – that's right, Pig on the Ridge will be held the first weekend of November. Mark your calendars for: Friday, Nov 2 and Sat, Nov 3rd. Show your support and Pig OUT.
