

Mayor's Notes

Ridgeway, South Carolina

February 2019

Restrooms

At the last council meeting, council approved drawings for the proposed public restrooms in the downtown area. The bathrooms will be in the old "magistrates" office. A bid will be accepted at the March council meeting and we'll be on our way to having public restrooms.

Library

Have you been to Ridgeway's new library? The Fairfield County Library opened their new library this past month complete with a computer lab. The hours of operation are: Monday and Wednesday from 9 – 1 and Tuesday and Thursday from 2 – 6. Please consider volunteering.

MLK Jr. Day

Monday, January 21st the Town of Ridgeway was asked to be part of the Martin Luther King, Jr. celebration at the Lebanon Presbyterian Church. Notable speakers of Fairfield County and local government, including our own Mayor, made poignant comments. Prayers for the country, state, county, and town of South Carolina were made. Ms. Carrie Harrison gave a wonderful rendition of "I have a dream", which left the crowd speechless giving Ms. Harrison a standing ovation. Lastly, the church choir sang their hearts out. If you have time next year please make your way to this event.

President's Day

Just a reminder that Monday, February 18 is President's Day and the town hall will be closed in observance of the holiday.

Valentine's Day

Thursday, February 14th is Valentine's Day. Let's make this a day to show love for our town and community as well as our loved ones.
